Description:

Functional English is a practical language course designed to improve a student's English communication skills for everyday situations. Whether one is a beginner or seeking to enhance existing skills, this course covers essential language skills, real-life scenarios, and cultural insights. The student shall learn to converse confidently, navigate common situations, and, optionally, master business English. With practical exercises and assessments, one shall acquire the skills needed for successful communication, making everyday interactions in English more comfortable.

Aims and Objectives

The Functional English course aims to equip learners with the practical language skills needed for confident and effective communication in real-life scenarios. Through improving core language skills, fostering real-life communication abilities, and providing insights into everyday language usage and cultural understanding, the course empowers participants to navigate diverse situations with ease. Optional modules in business and workplace communication, along with practical exercises and assessments, which will ensure that the learners emerge with the proficiency to excel in both personal and professional English language interactions.
